

Octahedron 2015

An octahedron is polyhedron having 8 faces.

In a regular octahedron each of the faces would be an equilateral triangle.

However, this particular model is an irregular octahedron having 6 faces which are irregular pentagons, and 2 faces which are equilateral triangles.

It may be thought of as a cube which has had two opposite corners cut off.

